

Support for Pupils with SEND in PE.

Responsive Planning

- Pupils use visual reflection tools.
- Opportunities to work independently and as part of a team
- Staff use the STEP tool to adapt the lesson.
- Assistant teachers will work in small groups to model teamwork
- Observe and assess pupils continuously
- Adjust lessons based on learner needs
- Emphasise safe risk-taking to build confidence and resilience
- Offer multiple pathways for achieving the same learning goal
- Offer alternative roles in physical activities (e.g., planner, navigator, encourager)
- Pupils use visual markers, videos and diagrams
- It is desirable for pupils to come together in group but some pupils with SEND may get more satisfaction from individual practical work

Instructional Flexibility

- Flexible Grouping and varied support
- Use pair or small-group activities to encourage collaboration
- Rotate groups so students work with different classmates.
- Mix learners strategically to balance skill levels and promote peer-assisted learning
- Vary questions and explanations
- Vary questioning and explanations
- Incorporate visual, tactile, or hands-on supports
- This ensures that no child is left behind and allows every learner to engage in a way that suits them.
- Staff scaffold expectations Re listening and speaking
- Blank level 1-4 to support all learners to ask and answer questions
- Teach students to plan, monitor, and evaluate their own learning.
- Structured speaking opportunities
- Scaffolded oracy development
- Allow alternative ways to demonstrate understanding (oral, written, visual, or digital).

Collaborative Reflection

- Work with colleagues, families, and external services
- Reflect on what's working and adapt next steps
- Include pupil voice wherever possible
- Use reflection and metacognition to reflect on achievements, challenges and teamwork.
- Encourage cooperative learning, mentoring, and peer feedback.
- Inclusive assessment of communication
- Train peers in supportive strategies to foster inclusive interaction.
- Opportunities to discuss work independently and as part of a team
- Assistant teachers will work in small groups to model teamwork
- Use anchoring questions to promote discussion and reflection among students on their learning or group work.
