1. Introduction

This policy has been developed in collaboration between schools and Bolton Primary Heads, based on our shared experiences. It sets out the expectations for positive and respectful relationships in line with the values and principles upheld by everyone involved.

2. Purpose and scope

At The Gates Primary School, we believe it's important to:

- Work in partnership with parents to support their child's learning;
- Create a safe, respectful and inclusive environment for children, staff and parents;
- Model appropriate behaviour for our children at all times.
- Allow our children to contribute locally and wider afield adding real value to the world they live in.
- Ensure our children are responsible members of both our school and the wider community and care about our planet and future generations.
- Provide a nurturing environment and hold children's well-being as a priority. This can only happen with the support of our parents, who we work closely with us to ensure their child can achieve their full potential.

1- We aim to help children grow to well-rounded individuals who are resilient, respectful, inclusive and independent.

2- We are ambitious for all and aim to ensure that every child has the capacity to develop their own learning and fulfil their potential across the curriculum and beyond, achieve their personal best and overcome barriers to success.

3- We work together in partnership with parents, governors, children, agencies and the local community in the best interest of the children. Our children use their teamwork skills and are inclusive and understanding of others and collaborate to achieve positive outcomes in all aspects of the curriculum.

4- We aim to provide a wide range of engaging and fun learning experiences and to ensure that children are happy at school and enjoy each new day.

3 - We aim to ensure that children acquire a wide range of skills, concepts and knowledge that will help them to become critical thinkers who achieve success in the future and will be well-rounded members of our local and global community.

A strong relationship between parents and the school is vital to ensuring children feel safe and are not overwhelmed by stress or anxiety. By communicating openly and working together, we can build a community based on trust and respect.

To achieve this, we have set clear expectations and guidelines for behaviour for everyone in our community. This includes staff, as detailed in the staff code of conduct, and children, as outlined in our behaviour and motivation policy. These documents provide a framework that promotes a positive school environment and encourages personal responsibility.

This code of conduct serves as an unsigned agreement between the Parent, Carer, Visitor and The Gates Primary School. Its aim is to help the school and parents work together by setting clear guidelines and expectations for appropriate behaviour, reflecting the caring ethos, values and vision of our school.

This agreement outlines what you can expect from us as a school, our expectations of parents and carers, and the behaviours we do not accept within our school community.

In this document, we use the term 'parents' to refer to:

- Anyone with parental responsibility for a child
- Anyone caring for a child, such as grandparents or child-minders

Controlling access to school premises

Appendix 1

DfE Guidance - Published 27 November 2018

1. Who can go onto school premises?

Schools are private property. People do not have an automatic right to enter. Parents have an 'implied licence' to come on to school premises at certain times, for instance:

- for appointments
- to attend a school event
- to drop off or pick up younger children

Schools should set out their rules for this and tell parents what they are. Anyone who breaks those rules would be trespassing.

2. Barring individuals from school premises

Trespassing is a civil offence. This means that schools can ask someone to leave and take civil action in the courts if someone trespasses regularly. The school may want to write to regular trespassers to tell them that they are potentially committing an offence.

Schools can bar someone from the premises if they feel that their aggressive, abusive or insulting behaviour or language is a risk to staff or pupils. It's enough for a member of staff or a pupil to feel threatened.

The school should tell an individual that they've been barred or they intend to bar them, in writing. Letters should usually be signed by the headteacher, though in some cases the local authority, academy trust or proprietor may wish to write instead. The individual must be allowed to present their side. A school can either:

- bar them temporarily, until the individual has had the opportunity to formally present their side
- tell them they intend to bar them and invite them to present their side by a set deadline

After the individual's side has been heard, the school can decide whether to continue with barring them. The decision should be reviewed within a reasonable time, decided by the school.

The Department for Education (DfE) does not get involved in individual cases.

3. Removing individuals from school premises

Section 547 of the Education Act 1996 makes it a criminal offence for a person who is on school premises without legal permission to cause or permit a nuisance or disturbance. Trespassing itself does not constitute a criminal offence.

To have committed a criminal offence, an abusive individual must have been barred from the premises or have exceeded their 'implied licence', then also have caused a nuisance or disturbance.

If a school has reasonable grounds to suspect that someone has committed an offence, then they can be removed from the school by a police officer or a person authorised by the appropriate authority such as the:

- governing board

- local authority
- proprietor of that school
